*There must be a heaven for the animal friends we love.
They are not human, yet they bring out our own humanity...
Sometimes in ways that other people cannot.
They do not worry about fame or fortune...
Instead, they bring our hearts nearer to the joy of simple things.
Each day they teach us little lessons in trust and steadfast affection.
Whatever heaven may be, there's surely a place in it for friends as good as these.
Anyone who has loved a pet can understand your loss.
May it help to know how much others care.
